

Application for recognition of foreign decision on paternity or co-maternity

If paternity or co-maternity has been established abroad by a declaration, judgment or administrative decision, the parents may apply for recognition of the foreign decision in Norway.

Father/co-mother

Family name, first names	Date of birth/national ID no./ID no.
Address
Country	Citizenship

Child

Family name, first names	Date of birth/national ID no./ID no.
Address
Country

Mother

Family name, first names	Date of birth/national ID no./ID no.
Address
Country	Citizenship

You must submit the following documents in connection with your application for recognition of a foreign decision on paternity or co-maternity:

- The child's birth certificate, an extended version if this is available
- Documentation of how the paternity or co-maternity was established, e.g. a declaration, judgment or administrative decision
- Documentation of the identity of the parents and the child, e.g. a passport or valid identity card

If you do not want to submit original documents, you must obtain verified copies, e.g. from a Norwegian embassy or consulate.

Date

Place

Signature